Humanity is our identity

Mr P. Naga Bhaskar, resource person of this program Humanity is our identity . P. Naga Bhaskar says that he is a humble representative of Manavatha, an organization committed to the cause of humanity. He shares that each one of us plays a compassionate and empathetic society. When we extend a helping hand to those in need. Manavatha emphasizes the principle of collective responsibility. Each act of kindness, no matter how small, contributes to the well-being of the larger community. As we join hands in this endeavour, we create a world where no one is left behind. He urges each one to reflect on our own capacity to make a difference. Whether through volunteering, contributing, or simply extending care to those around you. Finally, he expresses that together, let us build a world where kindness is common language.

In this session conducting a humanity program, students understands the importance of economic values, righteousness and liberation in human life.

Session -2 (1:30pm to 4:30pm)

In this program students understands that humanity has many advantages including critical thinking, creativity and problem solving.

At the end of the session, all students feels that humanity means caring for and helping others whenever and wherever possible.

The Principal and All the Staff members talked about the main purpose of an orientation session in college to bridge the gap between the professions and the students. Ensuring a smooth communication between the students, orientation is a warm up session for students before they are ready to hit the ground for their final performance for a successful career.
